D. B. Cooper

Activity 2: You are going to read a story about a man called D.B Cooper. Read part 1 and answer the following questions:

On the 24th of November, 1971, the day before Thanksgiving, a man Dan Cooper bought a one-way ticket from Portland to Seattle. The passengers described Cooper as a 40-year-old man who was wearing a business suit, black raincoat, brown shoes, a white shirt and black tie. He had a dark briefcase. Before a plane took off, Cooper ordered a bourbon and soda. When the plane took off, Cooper gave a flight attendant a note. She didn't look at it at first. She thought Cooper wanted to give her phone number and she put it into her pocket. After that Cooper came up to her and said. "Miss, you better look at that note. I have a bomb."

PART 2

Cooper told her that the bomb was in his briefcase. He opened it and showed her the bomb inside. After that, Cooper asked the flight attendant to write down a note and take it to the captain.

"I want $200,000 by 5 o'clock and four parachutes. When we land, I want a fuel truck to refuel the plane."

When the plane landed in Seattle, the police delivered Cooper 4 parachutes and money. As a result, he let 36 passengers leave the plane. However, he didn't let the crew leave the plane. After that, the plane took off for Mexico City. After half an hour, Cooper put on a pair of dark sunglasses and a parachute and jumped out of the Boeing 727.

PART 3

Activity 4: Answer the questions from part 2

1. What should the passengers do when a plane is hijacked? Is it better to listen to hijackers or try to look for other solutions?
2. What do you think Cooper did after he jumped out of the plane?
3. Do you think the police managed to catch him?

The FBI had a very good description of Cooper because 2 flight attendants spent a lot of time with him on the plane. Despite having a very accurate description of Cooper, he was never seen again. In 1980, 9 years after Cooper's escape, a young boy found a rotten package filled with 6,000$. The FBI announced that this was the money stolen by Cooper. However, this was the only thing ever found. The FBI has never found D.B Cooper.

Homework activity: Write 150-word paragraph about what happened with D. B Cooper after he jumped out of the plane.
